

DANIEL NARVAIZ BIOGRAPHY

Daniel Narvaiz - Partner

Daniel is a skilled Market Research professional who has an extensive background in campaign strategy, message development, audience targeting, and both quantitative and qualitative research.

Daniel's work has aided the election of numerous officials ranging from local government to state and federal offices across the US. In addition to work in support of political candidates Daniel has had a leading role in research efforts for clients ranging from not-for-profit organizations to corporate interests to national and state level associations.

